

TRIBUTE TO A FRIEND
ANDREW PETERSON
by ANDREW FJELD
Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Andrew Peterson was my boyhood friend and most cherished companion. We began playing together when we were very small boys and continued almost inseparable until we were grown. Nature seemed to have endowed him with an unusual degree of wisdom and good “horse sense” so that he was looked up to and respected by all of the boys. He was never in trouble with anyone but was always peaceable and agreeable in his ways.

We were closely associated in school, in church, hauling wood together and in working on the farm, but, wherever he was and whatever he was doing he was always honorable, trustworthy, full of faith and absolutely reliable. An exceptionally fine, dependable man, whom I dearly loved.